Guardian Assistance Program

Outagamie County

What is the Guardian Assistance Program?

The Outagamie County Guardian Assistance Program provides free training, education, and support to guardians in Outagamie County. Attend a training, call with questions, or meet with staff when needed to help you fulfill your role as a guardian of person, estate, or both.

Assistance and Support

In addition to group trainings, the Guardian Assistance Program also provides education and support to guardians on a one-to-one basis through phone, email, or office appointments. Please use the contact information provided in this informational flyer to utilize this option.

Some guardian questions and/or situations require the assistance of legal representation. No legal advice is given through the Outagamie County Guardian Assistance Program.

Additional information about the guardianship role in Outagamie County can be found in a Guardianship Tutorial at www.outagamie.org/how-to/learn-about-becoming-a-guardian
