

Dining Options for Older Adults

Enjoy a hot, nutritious, mid-day meal! Meals are offered on a voluntary contribution basis!

What is Congregate Meal Service? Congregate Meal Service is dining in a communal setting for individuals 60 years and older; their spouse, regardless of spouse's age; and/or disabled adult, under 60, residing with an eligible older individual and/or reside in a housing facility that is occupied primarily by older individuals, at which congregate nutrition services are provided.

Congregate meals offer opportunities for socialization, nutrition education and counseling, a link to the ADRC, and other resources used to support the well-being and independence of older adults.

When do I sign up? You must call and make a meal reservation before 12:00 NOON the day before eating at a Congregate Mealsite! Participants who make a meal reservation in advance will be given priority. A participant registration form is required annually.

Who do I contact to sign up?

You will speak with the Mealsite Manager to reserve a meal. If you would like to make a meal reservation, please contact the Mealsite 24 hours in advance according to the chart below:
